

THE WAKE

Here Comes Everybody + Singles (82-87) 2xLP

- Remastered Reissue of Classic Factory Band's Sophomore Album + Singles, Now Back In Print for a Limited Time
- A 2xLP set pressed at 33 RPM and housed in a Gatefold Sleeve
- Includes Liner Notes

Housed in a Gatefold Jacket with two Eurosleeves, we offer up a period of The Wake which has not been available on vinyl since its initial pressings on Factory Records two and a half decades ago.

Long considered their masterwork, Here Comes Everybody is post-punk at its lushest and most alluring. With an underlying urgency peppered with a frost of delicate melody, the influence of the Wake can be seen in a myriad of sub-genres within the independent community and is often cited as a key influence on our own label roster. This impeccable LP is bolstered by the equally inspired EPs and Singles that surrounded it: Talk About the Past, Of The Matter and Something That No One Else Can Bring have long been difficult finds for an aspiring record collector, until now. Remastered.

RELEASE DATE: OCTOBER 30, 2015
 GENRE: ALTERNATIVE / INDIE / POST-PUNK

"Here Comes Everybody holds up as a touchstone for aching, atmospheric synth-pop, all slinky guitars, crisp percussion, textured keyboard, and limber bass. ..Expansively wispy, this is a record best heard as a whole, a missing evolutionary link between Josef K and the Field Mice." - Pitchfork
