JUAN WAUTERS & CARMELLE

WEARING LEATHER, WEARING FUR - 12" EP

- Hometown: Queens, NY via Uruguay
- Follow up to debut album, N.A.P. North American Poetry
- Limited (500 Copies) Edition One-Sided 12" EP

Captured Tracks is pleased to announce the release of Wearing Leather, Wearing Fur, the first fully collaborative recording by Juan Wauters and Carmelle following their duets on N.A.P. North American Poetry. This continuous, thirteen minute composition presents a concise suite of song, poetry, and instrumental passages that Juan and Carmelle developed through live performances since 2012. In Wearing Leather, Wearing Fur, Juan and Carmelle share the lead, navigating the listener through stages of varying emotional intensity as they sing themes of external identity and personal freedom.

RELEASE DATE: FEBRUARY 3RD, 2015

GENRE: INDIE / ALTERNATIVE (PSYCH FOLK POP)

"Though toeing the gum-smacking snark of his mainstay band The Beets, the crumpled folk and sketched pop [of Juan Wauters] turns inward-a missing link between Daniel Johnston and Jonathan Richman." - Brooklyn Magazine

"Juan Wauters is equal parts anti-folk hero Adam Green, 1960s Bob Dylan (but without anything to protest against) and his own unique concoction of lovable, lo-fi pop." - Now Magazine
