

ALL YOUR FRIEND'S FRIENDS

ALL YOUR FRIEND'S FRIENDS [KLP255] is a seminal Northwest Hip-Hop compilation album produced entirely off of samples pulled from the K catalogue. Featuring over 30 of the most unique MCs from the region including members of mega-crews OLDDOMINION and the SANDPEOPLE, the album also introduces a host of hidden talent from OLYMPIA, WA — K's sonic stomping ground.

This decades-spanning compilation is a creative celebration of the Northwest sound and scene in some of its most striking masks and manifestations. The energy of the album moves fluidly between dark, angsty, and self-reflective to upbeat, nostalgic, and carefree, taking the listener on an underground rap odyssey through the overcast streets, anarchist basements, cramped performance spaces, and stoned-out suburbs of this moody and musical part of the world.

Through kaleidoscopic counter-cultural mashups and top-secret sampling styles, producer Smoke M2D6 has mercilessly deconstructed the classic lo-fi garage soul sound of the iconic indy label, artfully rearranging it all over a thick foundation of classic breaks, 808's, and of course some heavy bass, allowing old heads to hear this music in a totally different way, while introducing a new generation of fans to a classic treasure trove of northwest creative history.

ALL YOUR FRIEND'S FRIENDS is sample-based Hip-Hop culture at its best — taking something dope from the past and making something fresh for the future.

- "Producer Smoke M2D6 layers live instruments and singing over dusty loops to create a vibrant sound. This isn't some simple laptop hip-hop, it is the sound of a producer using the studio as an instrument."
(Rap Reviews)

- "Two years after establishing their permanent name in 1999, Old Dominion released One, a masterpiece of underground hiphop. The record is to local [NW] hiphop what Enter the Wu-Tang (36 Chambers) was to the national hiphop of its moment." (The Stranger)

- "The name Silent Lambs Project pops up in the annals of Seattle-area rap going back well over a decade...adorning some of the most electric and artful hip-hop the city has ever been able to claim."
(Seattle Weekly)

- "While others are maximizing attention on the local level, Grayskul members Onry Ozzborn and JFK have long been looking beyond the Seattle scene to get national play." (Seattle Times)

- "Eprhyme is moving hip-hop to both an academic level of fixation and an inspirational (yes, it had to be said) level of enthusiasm."
(Tiny Mix Tapes)
