VINYL NOT RETURNABLE

Porcelain Raft's "Drifting In And Out" is the opening track to his debut full length, Strange Weekend. It's the Italian born singer's anthemic, gauzy and chiming call to arms.

The 7" b-side "Chain" astutely balances melancholy and wistfulness. Mauro Remiddi does his best heartstring pulling to date as he sings "and I feel something/something I cannot deny/half my life behind."

PRAISE FOR PORCELAIN RAFT:

Many of the melodies feel familiar but can't easily be precisely placed, which not only makes them good earworm candidates but also enhances the album's dreamlike, half-remembered feel.

-Pitchfork

Remiddi makes music that maintains the wide-eyed obsession with the pratfalls of love that are so often a younger person's game, and it's the reason that his music is so compelling.
