SOME TWIST

Michael Nau returns with his new album, Some Twist, out June 16th. Some Twist is the follow up to 2016's Mowing and its announcement comes amidst a flurry of recent activity. Two weeks ago, Nau debuted songs from Some Twist on KCRW's Morning Becomes Eclectic and headlined two sold out shows on back-to-back nights in Los Angeles. He has received extensive BBC radio play and been selected as a "6 Music Recommends" pick. One-off single "Love Survive" cracked the top 50 on Spotify's Global Viral Chart and Elton John has played Nau on his Beats1 show.

Suicide Squeeze Records is proud to release Some Twist on LP and CD. The first pressing of the album is available on 1,000 copies of pink vinyl and contains a download code. CD is housed in a digipak.

"His masterful instinct for arrangement, along with his reedy voice, earns Nau a place in the rock'n'roll underdogs' Hall of Fame."

– Pitchfork

"recalls cadences of 1970s Ned Doheny and solo David Byrne, with a hint of Brian Wilson"

– The FADER

"the sounds conjure a cozy and fuzzy flurry of psych-pop warmth."

– Aquarium Drunkard
