

BIG BLACK SONGS ABOUT FUCKING REMASTERED

BY STEVE ALBINI AND BOB WESTON

TG024LP + Album Download / Release Date: October 19, 2018

Box Lot: 25
UPC: 036172072415
Filed Under: Big Black
Vinyl is Non-Returnable

THE PLAYERS:

Dave Riley - Bass
Santiago Durango - Guitar, Vocals
Steve Albini - Vocals, Guitar
Roland Drum Machine - itself

Side A: The Power of Independent Trucking / The Model / Bad Penny / L. Dopa / Precious Thing / Columbian Necktie

Side B: Kitty Empire / Ergot / Kasimir S. Pulaski Day / Fish Fry / Pavement Saw / Tiny, King of the Jews / Bombastic Intro

Big Black was started by Steve Albini in 1982 while he was attending Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Lungs, the first Big Black release was recorded by Steve on a borrowed 4-track. He played everything on the EP himself - except the sax bleating courtesy of pal John Bohnen and the drums courtesy of Roland. Soon after, Steve recruited Jeff Pezzati (Naked Raygun) on bass, and Santiago Durango (also Naked Raygun) joined them on guitar. In 1983, together with live drummer Pat Byrne, they recorded the Bulldozer EP. By 1984, the band had done some touring and recorded the Racer X EP and the start of the II Duce 7". After that, Jeff returned to Naked Raygun and was replaced by Dave Riley.

In 1985, Big Black recorded their first full-length, Atomizer, as well as finishing the II Duce 7". Atomizer was released in 1986 along with the release of the Hammer Party compilation CD.

In 1987, the Headache EP and Heartbeat 7" were released. That same year, the band recorded and released the 7" of The Model/He's A Whore as well as their second full-length album, Songs About Fucking. They toured extensively (for Big Black). And they broke up.

TG024LP UPC

touchandgorecords.com

Exclusively distributed by SECRETLY DISTRIBUTION

PHONE: 812.335.1572 / FAX: 888.678.0167

US Domestic Sales contact: domestic@secretlydistribution.com

International Sales contact: international@secretlydistribution.com