RELEASE BIO

Melbourne, Australia band Chook Race formed in 2010, starting out as a scrappy, garage/surf band, but soon developed a greater pop sensibility, born of their love of the Flying Nun bands and other bedroom favorites. After a string of tapes and 7's Chook Race self released their debut LP 'About Time' in 2015. They now return with new album 'Around The House', due for release on September 2nd through Chicago's Trouble in Mind Records (Tenth Court will release the album in AU, NZ & Japan).

The ten songs on "Around The House" are oddly withdrawn yet highly personal tunes, but performed by the band with a desperate urgency. Songs like the immediate & catchy "Hard To Clean" & "Sometimes" clang & clatter like chrome-plated pop earworms, while others like the somber "Pink & Grey" and album-closer "Start Anew" hum pensively, quietly insinuating themselves into your subconscious. Before you know it, you'll be humming each one non-stop.

Captured in a single day by Tom Hardisty (NUN, Woollen Kits) and mastered by Mikey Young (Total Control, Eddy Current Suppression Ring) the album has a compelling sound defined by jangly guitars, boy-girl harmonies and lyrical observations of the everyday.

"Around The House" is released digitally, on compact disc, and pressed on black vinyl. A limited color vinyl is available while supplies last!
