BIO

Melbourne, Australia's most enigmatic trio return with a brain-bending slice of bleak mantra-rock that only they can make inexplicably addictive. Coupled with two new jams are a pair of remixes from like-minded friends and world-renowned artists Justin K Broadrick (Jesu, Godflesh), and Factory Floor (DFA).

Picking up where they left off on last year's sensational Little Joy, "Wrapped Coast" is tribal post-punk clatter at its finest, like a slightly deranged bastard spawn of Boredoms and Mission of Burma. The beat has clear nods to late night dance and debauchery, making Factory Floor's "The Michael Cliffe House Remix" a logical extension of the original.

The b-side stretches out, showcasing one of My Disco's strongest suits: their ability to craft mesmerizing body music with space as their secret weapon. The effects are staggering, slightly creepy, and strangely seductive – made all the more so by Justin K Broadrick's intensely sprawling remix.

Four songs pushing a half hour in length on a limited-edition vinyl 12" – this is how My Disco do.

This vinyl-only release is strictly limited to 1,000 copies, and includes a free MP3 download code featuring a bonus alternate remix by Justin K Broadrick.

"There's a hypnotic allure to [their music]." – Pitchfork

"Their place in the lineage of great dance music is unquestionable." – The Quietus

"After one listen, if you're not bobbing your head in the slightest, you need to find out why your shoes have no sole." – Absolute Punk
